

Relocating a Business...

A Dream Come True?

Or a Nightmare?

Making a move is about making a plan for change. But before making a plan, there are concerns you'll need to address. How to find time to devote to the relocation process? Who will find vendors and resources...who will manage them? Are new policies and procedures needed? How to include the "entire" organization in the process, and when is that necessary? What types of communication will facilitate the transition? These are the questions we help CEOs and their teams answer to ensure a successful relocation.

Workplace Evolution assists in developing and implementing a systems based approach to all your relocation needs by:

- ✓ Establishing realistic timelines/cost estimates & revealing short/long term impact
- ✓ Assessing employee retention, recruitment, and hiring
- ✓ Harnessing the power of transition to build community
- ✓ Identifying process, systems, and generational barriers to successful relocation
- ✓ Developing a transition strategy for business, communication, and cultural issues
- ✓ Guiding managers in leading and engaging staff before AND after relocation
- ✓ Targeting opportunities to upgrade technology to achieve business goals

Make a dream come true...
begin by investing in a relocation assessment.

Workplace Evolution (WE) assists organizations with cultivating innovative workplaces where people, profits and planet thrive by unifying possibility and productivity. WE provides relocation services in strategic partnership with Changing Places, a move management firm with 17 years experience.

For more information, visit us at the Workplace Evolution booth or email us at info@workplaceevolution.com.